

PLACE QUÉBEC

Indigenous Peoples and Local Communities Programme

From 8 to 18 December 2022 at the 15th Conference of the Parties to the Convention on Biological Diversity
Place Québec in the Palais de Congrès, Montréal

*Programme will be updated as it becomes available

Thursday, 8th December 2022

10:00-11:30

Title: Defending the Defenders: a way forward for environmental justice in Latin America

Organizer: International Indigenous Forum on Biodiversity

Summary of the session

- Launching of the Environmental Defenders Project within the framework of the International Indigenous Forum on Biodiversity (English)

13:15-14:15

Title: Promoting Indigenous Food Systems

Organizer: Tebtebba, Indigenous Peoples' International Centre for Policy Research and Education

Summary of the session

- Panel discussions (English)

15:00-16:00

Title: The Autonomous Territorial Government of the Wampis Nation, Peru

Organizer: Nación Wampis, NIA TERO

Summary of the session

- Panel: 1. Experiences in Self-Government, Territorial Management, and the Wampis Autonomous Indigenous Protected Area. 2. Launch of new music video on territorial guardianship of the Wampis Leadership School-- Escuela Sharian (Español)

16:15-17:15

Title: Isolated Indigenous Peoples and Biodiversity Protection

Organizer: ORPIO, União dos Povos Indígenas do Vale do Javari, OPI, OPIAC, NIA TERO

Summary of the session

- Panel: In the Side Event that we request, we will seek to present the situation of the Indigenous People in Isolation and how their protection results in the protection of biodiversity, for this we will promote

Friday 9 December

10:00-11:00

Title: Mujeres indígenas: condiciones para su participación plena y efectiva en el Marco de Diversidad Posterior a 2020

Organizer: RMIB-LAC

Summary of the session

- Panel, presentación de estudios, muestra de artesanías, video. Tejidos de mujeres artesanas, video sobre preparación de alimentos propios (Español)

11:15-12:15

Title: Inclusive Conservation Initiative

Organizer: Asociación Sotzil, ANAPAC, UCRT Africa

Summary of the session

- Panel discussion with IPLC leaders who are part of the Inclusive Conservation Initiative, sharing “stories from the ground” on how their work through ICI and how it contributes to biodiversity conservation, whilst strengthening IPLCs land tenure and resource governance. (English)

13:15-14:15

Title: Exchange of experiences; Building a network for America, Africa, Asia, Oceania on IPCL and their ways to strengthen

Organizer: Non-Timber Forest Products –Exchange amme Asia

Summary of the session

- Different territories conserved by indigenous people and local communities have been creating strategies through their knowledge. (English)

15:00-16:00

Title: Case Studies on the Impact of Conservation on Indigenous Peoples

Organizer: IPRI, Nia Tero

Summary of the session

- Panel discussion: Report on Indigenous Peoples and Conservation (English)

16:15-17:15

Title: Policy Chalk Talks - Why Indigenous Peoples need to be fully embedded in the Post-2020 GBF

Organizer: Nia Tero

Summary of the session

- Video screening - 3 policy chalk talk videos (English)

Saturday, 10 December 2022

10:00-11:00

Title: Stories on Territorial Mapping

Organizer: Tebtebba and Partners for Indigenous Knowledge Philippines.

Summary of the session

- Panel discussion (English)

11:15-12:30

Title: Making finance flow for IPLCs – putting locally-led action at the heart of GBF finance and resource mobilisation

Organizer: Ramson Karmushu, IMPACT in Kenya ,IIDB

Summary of the session

- "This event will be a panel/group discussion. Locally-led action - where finance and decision-making power is shifted to the local level to support solutions and implementation by Indigenous Peoples and Local Communities (IPLCs) – is essential for implementing the Global Biodiversity Framework (GBF) and to conserving, managing and restoring land and marine-based nature into the future. The event will dive into issues of governance, decision-making, access, monitoring, evaluation and reporting processes that can limit IPLC agency over finance and place this in the context of the Global Biodiversity Framework and what more is needed to strengthen this during COP15 discussions. (English)

13:15-14:45

Title: Building a network among the territories of life. the experience in Myanmar

Organizer: JKPP Non-Timber Forest Products –Exchange Programme Asia, Kalpavriksh ICCA Consortium

Summary of the session

- The people of Myanmar, Phillipines, Malaysia, Thailand, Indonesia will present how their customary laws have allowed them to conserve and protect the forest, even with military occupation such as that of February 2021 that caused threats to biodiversity and holistic conservation of the territory. Videos and Archive pictures and other materials, publications and other kind of biocultural products. (English)

15:00-16:00

Title: Warddeken Land Management, Arnhem Land, Northern Territory, Australia

Organizer: Warddeken, NIA TERO

Summary of the session

- Panel: Incorporating Western and Traditional Science into Management of Indigenous Protected Areas
Carbon Credits for Traditional Fire Management as a reliable income stream for an Indigenous Protected Area
Advancing Indigenous Education within Indigenous Protected Areas (English)

10:00-11:00

Title: Contributions of Indigenous Peoples of the Philippines to Achieving the Objectives of the CBD

Organizer: Gawis Indigenous Rights, Tebtebba, PIKP, Bukluran.

Summary of the session

- Panel discussion (English)

11:15-12:15

Title: Consejos Indígenas: ejemplo de gobiernos propio para la protección de la Biodiversidad

Organizer: OPIAC, NIA TERO

Summary of the session

- Panel en el que se presentará la experiencia de los Consejos Indígenas en Colombia, su estado actual e importancia para garantizar la biodiversidad en los territorios indígenas amazónicos. (Español)

13:15-14:45

Title: She Shapes Biodiversity Photo Exhibition

Organizer: Women4Biodiversity

Summary of the session

- Exhibition of the 10 finalists and 5 winners of our She Shapes Biodiversity Photo Contest. It is a compendium of photographs that portray the link between women and biodiversity. Among the photos, indigenous women from Asia and Latin America are portrayed, as well as non-indigenous women, belonging to local communities, in different expressions such as art, culture, activism, action on the ground. The photos will be available printed on cardboard, in A2 format, and also in transportable roller banner format (80 cm x 200 cm). (English)

15:00-17:00

Title: Conocimiento Indígena, biodiversidad y buen vivir.

Organizer: Federación Indígena Empresarial, CIELO

Summary of the session

- 12 photo exhibit on four system-products made by IPLC's gathered by CIELO, where we explain how indigenous knowledge, local development and entrepreneurship is feasible while ensuring sustainable practices and preserving biodiversity. (Español)

Thursday, 15 December 2022

10:00-11:00

Title: Indigenous Knowledge and Peoples of Asia (IKPA)

Organizer: AIPP

Summary of the session

- Indigenous Knowledge and Peoples of Asia (IKPA) is a regional network established in 2019 with the financial support from the Secretariat of the Convention on Biological Diversity (SCBD). The event will feature how the IKPA members in Malaysia, Philippines and Thailand are advancing the recognition, respect and visibility of Indigenous Knowledge and community lead initiatives at all levels. (English)

11:15-12:15

Title: Indigenous Peoples and Inclusive Conservation: Toward an Inclusive Conservation Academy

Organizer: Inclusive Conservation Academy

Summary of the session

- Panel discussions (English)

13:15-14:45

Title: Our Leadership for Peoples and the Planet: Film Screening by Asian Indigenous Peoples' Organizations

Organizer: AIPP

Summary of the session

- Video viewing (English)

15:00-17:00

Title: Indigenous Co-managed Territories of Siberia: Bikin National Park and Yakutia indigenous traditional territories.

Organizer: Center for Support of Indigenous Peoples of the North together with Aboriginal Forum

Summary of the session

- Panel discussion with exhibition, organized by Indigenous peoples from North, Siberia, Far East and Arctic for supporting and recognizing the rights and contribution of indigenous peoples particular of the protection biodiversity and ecosystems through their traditional indigenous management of the lands and territories and resources. (English)

Friday, 16 December 2022

10:00-11:00

Title: Diversidad Forestal y Recursos Naturales no Maderables en la Amazonía Peruana.

Organizer: AIDSESEP

Summary of the session

- Panel liderado por AIDSESEP enfocado en la revisión de temas como: Biodiveersidad, Recursos Naturales, Pueblos Indígenas de la Amazonía Peruana, entre otros. (Español)

13:15-14:15

Title: Building a network among territories of life in Myanmar

Organizer: Non-Timber Forest Products –Exchange Programme Asia Kalpavriksh ICCA Consortium

Summary of the session

- The people of Burma will present how their customary laws have allowed them to conserve and protect the forest, even with military occupation such as that of February 2021 that caused threats to biodiversity and holistic conservation of the territory through a dialogue and other materials and visual production. (English)

15:00-16:00

Title: Amendment of the Amerindian Peoples Act 2006 and Indigenous responses to the Carbon Market in Guyana

Organizer: APA, Nia Tero

Summary of the session

- Panel in which the Amerindian People's Association will present the main aspects related to the strategic advocacy process around the Amerindian Peoples Act in Guyana for the protection of indigenous peoples and their territories in this country. (English)

Saturday, 17 December 2022

10:00-11:00

Title: Advocacy for the adoption of an Indigenous Peoples' Law in Suriname

Organizer: Association of Indigenous Village leaders in Suriname, NIA TERO

Summary of the session

- Panel in which the Association of Indigenous Village leaders in Suriname will present the process of Advocacy for the adoption of an Indigenous Peoples' Law and engaging young people in Indigenous rights advocacy (English)

13:15-14:45

Title: DSI Just Transitions from Nagoya

Organizer: IIFB, Nia Tero

Summary of the session

- Panel will address state of DSI negotiations from multiple perspectives, including its relationship to IPLC rights and interests reflected in the Nagoya Protocol and Article 31 of UNDRIP. (English)

15:00-17:00

Title: Promoting knowledge and rights of Arctic Indigenous Peoples through community-based monitoring

Organizer: Council of Yukaghir Elders

Summary of the session

- Panel Discussion. (English)

Sunday, 18 December 2022

10:00-11:00

Title: Realidades sobre el Consentimiento Previo, Libre e Informado desde la Amazonía Ecuatoriana

Organizer: CONFENIAE, NIA TERO

Summary of the session

- Panel en el que se presentarán las principales problemáticas afrontadas por los Pueblos Indígenas en la Amazonía ecuatoriana y sus propuestas en camino hacia la puesta en marcha del Marco Mundial sobre la Diversidad Biológica Post 2020 (Español)

15:00-17:00

Title: Implementing Community-based Monitoring and Information Systems

Organizer: Centres of Distinction on Indigenous and Local Knowledge

Summary of the session

- Panel Discussion (English)